Organisation of Educators Nominated Supervisor

NQS 4.1.1 Organisation of educators

Name of the person conducting the checklist:	Date: _
Practice
Do you ensure ratios are always maintained, including when staff take breaks for meals, programming, administration, interviews etc?	O Yes	ONo	Ona
Do you ensure other staff or adults are present if ratios don't provide adequate supervision or meet children's needs?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Are there procedures to ensure all educators caring for children in family groupings can talk to parents about a child's activities?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Are there written induction procedures which are always implemented to ensure new or relief staff quickly become valued and effective team members?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you advise families before they arrive (where possible) if a different educator will be caring for their child on the day?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you provide educators with non-contact time for things like programming and meetings eg with families, other professionals including inclusion support?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you ensure there's always at least one first aid qualified staff member present?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you ensure qualification requirements are always maintained?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Reflection
Do you reflect on the way educators are organised and implement changes which promote children's learning or sense of belonging eg during excursions, during room set ups or pack aways?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you develop rosters and assign staff to rooms/groups taking into account staff interests and strengths?	O Yes	O No	ONA
Do you consider children's relationships and familiarity with educators when developing rosters and assigning staff to rooms/groups?	O Yes	ONo	ONA
Do you consider comments about staff made by families or community members when developing rosters and assigning staff to rooms/groups?	g O Yes	O No	ONA
Actions required			