

Dear Families,
We will honour your requests regarding your child's education and care.

Educators recognise that families are children's first and most influential teachers. They honour the histories, cultures, languages, traditions and child-rearing practices of families so they can better support children in their care. (EYLF and MTOP)