Management

Your team crave feedback on their weekly Centre Support professional development.

Getting appropriate feedback and seeing actions which come from their comments and reflections inspires them to keep on completing the professional development. It's important therefore that you read the Educators' section and make sure you and/or the Educational Leader:

- action the checklist results eg if educators ask for help by answering 'T' they get the help they need
- follow up their critical reflection ie help implement outcomes
- use their QIP contributions and display them.

Complete
QIP

Note QIP contributions can come from educators':

- Monday checklist - If educators discovered practices, processes, checklist or areas they need to improve, help them improve eg with training, changing a checklist, a procedure or a physical area and decide whether to include in QIP Improvement section
- Tuesday sentences that explain how they're meeting example indicators. Decide whether to include as a QIP strength
- Wednesday reflection leading to changed practices. Decide whether to include in QIP Improvement section
- Friday QIP strength writing which includes how they're exceeding the element. Decide whether to include as a QIP meeting or exceeding strength.

- an area where you can set and monitor weekly goals
- a checklist based on the meeting indicators for the Element
- a review of the Regulations that apply to the Element (or other relevant information if no Regs apply)
- information about employment practices from the Federal Government's Fair Work website

Please note the 'Partnerships with Families' document that comes with the email should be displayed somewhere families can easily see it eg near attendance book and on your social media site i.e. Facebook. It provides families with the opportunity to contribute to policy reviews as required under Element 6.1.2.

Checklist

Why are you doing the checklist?

The practices identified in the checklist are what the assessor needs to see you do so they can check you're 'meeting the NQS'. The checklist will assess your practices against the NQS Element. If you embed all the things in the checklist, then you are meeting the Element 3.2.2. If there's something on the checklist that you're not doing, then you need to either adjust your practice to do it, or you may need help and training to do what's on the checklist.

Fair Work

The Federal Government's Fair Work website <https://www.fairwork.gov.au/> has a lot of simple, easy to understand information about employee entitlements as well as some useful templates. Each week we'll share information from the website.

This week we look at the new Workplace Legal Advice Program. The Program provides eligible employers with free independent legal help to deal with workplace issues arising from the coronavirus outbreak on issues like:

- stand downs from work
- flexible work arrangements
- pay and entitlements
- JobKeeper changes to the Fair Work Act.

Law firms with specialist workplace experience provide the advice which is free and confidential.

Eligible employers are those who:

- are not represented by a lawyer
- don't have a paid memberships with a professional employer body or industry association that provides member advice services
- are covered by the Fair Work system/laws
- agree to the Terms and Conditions of the Program.

You can download the Program's Frequently Asked Questions.

Child Care Subsidy

As we mentioned two weeks ago, one of the things you can do to maintain or increase enrolment after the end of 'free child care' is provide families with information about returning to or joining the CCS system.

The Federal Department of Education has emailed all Providers with information that should be provided to families who received CCS in 2018-19. It relates to the need to confirm income and there is a letter template you can use.
