

We welcome and support students who undertake practical experience at the centre as part of their professional training

We evaluate our own practices to ensure we are participating equitably, actively and appropriately as team members

We share responsibilities for our own professional development and set personal goals each year

We support each other to reflect on our interactions and relationships with children

We contribute new and innovative ideas and approaches

We systematically record relevant shared information and decisions for future reference

---

TEAM WORK