

Dear Families,
Consistency between your home and the centre will help your child settle and become an active learner. Please let us know how we can help create smooth transitions for your child.

Educators recognise that families are children's first and most influential teachers. They honour the histories, cultures, languages, traditions and child-rearing practices of families so they can better support children in their care. (EYLF and MTOP)