

A healthy self-esteem
is developed when a child learns how to do
things for themselves.
Let children develop
independence by
accessing and
pouring drinks.

