Answers from last week - Compliance test for educators

Instructions: Nominated Supervisor is to conduct the test. Ask one educator at a time in a location that other educators cannot hear or provide support to the educators being asked the question. Record the responses then analyse to see if the educators' responses would place you at risk of a fine. Finally, train the educators that fail to meet the regulations.

Name of educator:

Questions	Response	Pass or Fail
Miss Tristan asks how often the Regs say you must have a performance review. What's the answer?	The Regs don't cover professional development. The NQS says performance reviews must be conducted 'regularly.' It's generally accepted this means at least annually.
Miss Maddi asks whether all staff, including casuals, should have regular performance reviews. What's your response?	Yes all staff, including regular casual staff, should participate in performance reviews.
Mr Jose asked what the main steps in the performance review process are? What are they?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Review – performance against position description and expectations Plan – to achieve goals and improve practice Implement Plan

Week 30, 20-24 September 2021- 3.2.3 Environmentally Responsible

The Federal Government's Fair Work website <https://www.fairwork.gov.au/> has a lot of simple, easy to understand information about employee entitlements as well as some useful templates. Each week we'll share information from the website. This week we're looking at new sexual harassment protections in the Fair Work Act.

The changes include:

- stop sexual harassment Orders
From 11 November 2021 an eligible worker who believes they've been sexually harassed at work can apply to the Fair Work Commission for an Order to stop the sexual harassment.
- defining sexual harassment. A person sexually harasses another person if they:
 - make an unwelcome sexual advance
 - make an unwelcome request for sexual favours
 - engage in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature.It has to be reasonable to expect that in the situation, it's possible their behaviour would offend, humiliate or intimidate the other person.
- clarifying that sexual harassment at work is considered 'serious misconduct' and can be a valid reason for dismissal without notice.
