

Compliance test for educators

Instructions: Nominated Supervisor is to conduct the test. Ask one educator at a time in a location that other educators cannot hear or provide support to the educators being asked the question. Record the responses then analyse to see if the educators' responses would place you at risk of a fine. Finally, train the educators that fail to meet the regulations.

Questions	Response	Pass or Fail
Miss Domenica complains that Izzy's mum often visits when they're in the middle of story time - and it's very distracting for all the children. She wants to know if she can tell mum she can't come in. Can she?	Reg 157 says parents can enter the premises whenever their child is present. Miss Domenica should consider how to involve Izzy's mum in the storytelling activity, or if this is not possible sensitively talk with her about visiting at another time.
Mr Bryce says there must be some circumstances where they can refuse entry eg what if a parent starts abusing educators? Please respond.	Reg 157 says entry can be refused if permitting entry would: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pose a risk to the safety of the children and staff or • cause of breach of the National Law or • contravene a court order.
Miss Olivia asks for examples of the types of things that they could lawfully refuse entry for. Please respond.	Examples may include (depending on the situation): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • aggressive/armed parents • situations which threaten provision of adequate supervision • while responding to emergencies or natural disasters • where parents refuse to comply with Service policies eg no smoking or drinking.
