

Give attention to each child. Help children to become happily involved in groups or by themselves.

